

Betty Jane McCallum- Huggins, “Betty” as she was affectionately known was born on November 15, 1949 in Dillon, South Carolina to the late Elder David McCallum Sr. and Mattie Bell Brown McCallum. Betty departed this earthly life to enter into eternal life on Sunday, March 6, 2016. She was prepared and ready to go to her church, St. Matthew Church of Christ, but our Lord called her home.

She attended the public school system of Dillon County, South Carolina and received her High School Diploma from the Adult Learning Center, Brooklyn, New York. Betty migrated to New York at an early age and has been a resident of Brooklyn for fifty years. She was employed as a Health Care Provider for the state of New York for many years.

Betty met the LOVE of her life, Danny Ray at the age of twelve years old, and was married for forty-nine years. This union was blessed with five children, whom she adored and was very proud of; she called them her “Angels” whom God has blessed her with.

Betty accepted our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at an early stage in her life. Her mother, Mattie was a prayer warrior in the Army of the Lord. She led and taught by example the ways of a Christian Life. We thank God for her wisdom, caring and thoughtfulness. She will be missed and always in our hearts.

Betty was a concerned, lovable and faithful friend. She was truly a woman of God. Her door was always open and she welcome those in who had nowhere to go, as her mother did, her home was your home.
