

Elizabeth “Liz” Davis Peterson was born on August 12, 1954 to Eula Mae Davis and the late Rufus Davis in Mullins, South Carolina.

Elizabeth grew up in the Hayestown Area and attended Columbus Elementary School of Lake View, South Carolina and later moved to Syracuse, New York in September of 1966. “Liz” as known to her family and friends attended Blogett Junior High School, Roosevelt Junior High School and OCC Community College, Syracuse, New York.

Liz accepted Christ at an early age at St. Luke Baptist Church and worked faithfully on the Ushers’ Board in Syracuse, New York. After returning to Lake View, South Carolina, Liz rejoined Fork Chapel Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend John W. Fling, working as the Secretary of the Sunday School Department and the Ushers’ Ministry. She attended faithfully until her job hours changed to Sunday work as a Home Care Aide and until her health started to decline.

Liz loved her clients and she really loved her family. If Liz knew you or your family she would ask how is your daughter, how’s your family; she never would forget to ask.

Liz leaves to many family members to cherish good memories ~ her mother: Eula Mae Davis; sister: Agnes Davis of the home; three brothers: Harry J. Davis, Jimmy R. Davis, Willie L.
