

Georgia Mae Carmichael McRae, daughter of the late George and Dora Carmichael was born on December 26, 1940 in Dillon County, South Carolina. She departed this earthly life on Saturday, April 1, 2017.

Georgia Mae attended the Dillon County Public Schools and was a 1960 graduate of Gordon High School, Dillon, South Carolina. Georgia Mae continued her education after attending high school and by completing various classes to become a Nursing Technician for St. Eugene Hospital (now McLeod Hospital of Dillon) where she was employed for almost forty years.

Georgia Mae was actively involved with the church for many years until her health began to decline. She served as Missionary President and assisted with other church activities.

She was married to the late Thomas F. McRae and to this union, three sons were born.

Georgia Mae leaves to cherish her fond and loving memories ~ three sons: Wayne (Regina) McRae, Thomas (Christine) McRae and Frank (Cathy) McRae all of Dillon, SC; one step-daughter: Theresa (John) Moore of Dillon, SC; one sister: Cora Jane Miles of Trenton, NJ; one brother: Frank Milton (Norma) Carmichael of Trenton, NJ; two sisters-n-law: Ilee Inman and Aretha Smutherman both of Dillon, SC; one uncle: Nathan "Stoney" McLellan; a special cousin: Patricia (David) Taylor of Dillon, SC; a very dear high school friend: Patricia Wallace of Detroit, MI; numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and supportive friends.