

James Washington Evans, son of the late James Troy Evans and Adlene Cox Evans was born on November 6, 1927 in Dillon County, South Carolina and quietly departed this earthly life on Monday, March 21, 2016 at home after a short illness.

He was united in holy wedlock to the late Linda Woodberry Evans.

James served as a Corporal in the United States Army, Active Duty for two years during the Korean War.

James was a member of Mill Branch Baptist Church at an early age, and later he moved to Brooklyn, New York and lived there for twenty years. He returned back to Dillon and became a member of St. John Baptist Church and served on the usher and trustee boards until his illness.

James had three brothers that preceded him in death: Sammie Evans, Troy Evans and Frank Evans.

He leaves fond memories ~ two daughters: Mattie Gales of Largo, MD and Sharon Evans of Dillon, SC and one son: Johnny Evans of Winston Salem, NC; one sister: Annie Louis Eaddy of Latta, SC and one brother: William Quincy (Gwen) Bethea of Virginia; eight grandchildren, fourteen great grandchildren; eight great, great grandchildren; a dear friend: Eunice Hamilton and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.