

Mrs. Jannie Williams Holiday was called into eternal rest on Sunday, September 25, 2016 at McLeod Hospital in Dillon, South Carolina with loved ones by her bedside.

She was born in Marlboro County to the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams on December 24, 1944. She was married to Howard Holiday in June of 1966, and to this union were three children. She loved her family and enjoyed taking care of them every moment of the day. She was employed by Carpostan Industry in Lake View, South Carolina for over thirty years, where she served faithfully as a machine operator. Quit was never in her vocabulary even when sickness tried to overpower her. Her love for life caused her to live each day seeking to make a difference in the lives of others. She spent much of her life taking care of her family even though her health was failing and her strength decreasing. She accepted Christ in her later years of life and became a member of Fresh Beginnings Christian Center in Little Rock, South Carolina; where the Pastors are Ricky and Annie Gilchrist.

Preceding her in death were one brother, Robert Lee Williams, three sisters-n-law, two brothers-n-law and two nieces.

She leaves to cherish loving memories ~ three children ~ two sons: Thomas Ray Williams of West Palm Beach, FL and Howard Holiday Jr. of Dillon, SC; one daughter: Diane Holiday of Dillon, SC; four Step-children; one brother: John Williams; six sisters: Zula Mae Manning, Louise Blue, Margaret (Billy) Ward, Lucille Thompson, Mary Ann Cribb and Sandra Carmichael all of Dillon County, SC; five sisters-n-law; two brothers-n-law; eight grandchildren, seven great grandchildren; two very special people who became her children at heart: Minister Bobby (Nicole) Purnell and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
