

On Friday, September 16, 2016, while a patient at Kindred Hospital, Greensboro, North Carolina, Jared Rashad Madlock, concluded his course, won the victory and transcended from mortality to immortality.

Jared, the son of Tommie and the late Wanda Madlock was born in Tacoma, Washington on December 24, 1980.

As a youth, Jared joined Manning Baptist Church and participated in numerous church activities.

Jared attended Dillon County Public Schools and graduated from Dillon High School, Dillon, South Carolina.

After graduation, he worked as a security guard. A job he kept until his health failed.

Because Jared was an affectionate person with a genial personality, he endeared himself to family members. His love of life and free-spirit enabled him to acquire a wealth of friends.

Left to fondly remember Jared ~ his son: Dewayne Madlock of Dillon, SC; father: Tommie Madlock; step-mother: Beatrice Madlock of Memphis, TN; three sisters: Akia Madlock, Katrina Madlock and Marie Alexander all of Seattle, WA; three nieces: Getya, Ashananta, Selena Madlock; a special friend: Amber Hooks; Also sharing memories of Jared are a multitude of aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends.
