

Mrs. Joann Moore, daughter of the late Walter Lee Adams and Ethel Mae Wallace Adams was born on September 19, 1940 in Williamsburg County, South Carolina.

She received her formal education in the public schools of Florence County, South Carolina. At an early age, she joined Mount Clair Missionary Baptist Church and continued as a faithful member until the Lord called her home.

“MaMa” as she was affectionately called was well-known in the community and loved by many. She was very devoted and always put the interest of her family first and saw to it that her kids were given the best she could provide. The memories we have of her will always remain dear in our hearts.

Our Heavenly Father who is perfect in all actions called Mrs. Joann Moore to her everlasting home in the early morning hours of Friday, March 18, 2016 at her home.

Those who preceded her in death were: her loving husband: Rufus Moore Jr.; a son: Walter Lee Adams and a daughter: Mae Katherine Adams.

She leaves to mourn ~ four children: Lee D. (Lisa) Adams and Ralph Singletary both of the home, Winifred Adams of Darlington, SC and Dwight (Tanya) Adams of Lake City, SC; two grand-daughters she reared and loved as her own: Taronda (Dectric) Barnes of Florence, SC and Chacitie (Kelvin) Jones of Columbia, SC; six-step children: Rosa Moore, Hattie McCutcheon, Joyce Moore and Clifford (Mae) Moore all of Lake City, SC, Gary Moore of Whiteville, SC and Geraldine Clark of Deerfield Beach, FL; one sister: Luvenia (Harrison) Richardson; twenty-one additional grandchildren; thirty great grandchildren, one great, great grandchild and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many dear friends.
