

Our hearts are filled with sadness but we realize that this homecoming is the sweetest journey of Ms. Katie Jones' life. A life filled with strength, courage and a wonderful death; but we must rejoice in the life that she lived. The lives she touched, the many sacrifices she made and her unselfishness made her a blessing to us all.

Katie Lenora Jones was born in Dillon County, South Carolina to the late Virginia Bryant and the late K.C. Rogers on July 29, 1957. She entered into everlasting peace on Monday, March 6, 2017 at McLeod Regional Hospice Center in Florence, South Carolina.

She was educated at Plainfield High School, Plainfield, New Jersey. She was a loving daughter, sister, mother and grandmother.

Two sisters preceded her in death: Carolyn Bryant and Debra A. McCants and two brothers: Bobby Lee Rogers and Nevell Rogers.

Katie leaves constant devotion, loving memories and unselfish love to her daughter: Najimah Jones of Asheville, NC; a wonderful son: Naim Jones of Raleigh, NC and her one and only grandson: Jayden Jones; seven sisters: Linda (Keith) Green of Huntsville, AL, Coretha Pengal of Roselle, NJ, Mary (James) Bethea of Lake View, SC, Izenna Edwards of Latta, SC, Brenda (Terrance) Bethea of Columbia, SC, Joyce Ann McNeil of Lake View, SC, Brenda Eason of Dillon, SC and Katie Primer of Syracuse, NY; six brothers: Terry Jones of High Point, NC, Leonard (Equilla) Rogers of East Orange, NJ, Kenny Rogers of Dillon, SC, Sammy Rogers of Springfield, VA, Rickey Rogers of Fayetteville, NC, Kelvin Rogers of Columbia, SC; one sister-in-law: Judy Rogers of Dillon, SC; a special cousin: Kelvin Meeks, all whom will miss her deeply along with a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
