

In the afternoon of January 5, 2016, Lannie Kay passed away at McLeod Hospice House after being transported from the Medical Center of South Carolina as a result of a bout with Multiple Myeloma and Osteosarcoma (Bone Cancer). Lannie was being comforted by her children throughout her stay in the hospital. "God is my Rock"

Lannie was born in Dillon, South Carolina and as a child she moved to Newark, New Jersey with her mother and siblings. She was educated and graduated from Girls Trade, Newark Public Schools in Newark, New Jersey. Lannie met and married her longtime best friend Bobby McKellar and until her death they spoke often over the phone. Lane was a very diligent worker at Super 8 Motel, Rowland, North Carolina, she worked at Hartz Mountain in Kearney, New Jersey and help to establish and work as the Administrator Assistance for BT&R Landscaping Company in East Orange, New Jersey. "God is Good"

At a very tender age Lane accepted Jesus Christ into her life and lived for God and tried to persuade others to do as such. She was a faithful servant and long time member of Ebenezer Baptist Church in Newark, New Jersey where she worked tirelessly to aide the congregation on the Nurses' Board, as well as a member of Saint Paul A.M.E. Church of Floydale, South Carolina where she served with the Willing Workers Club. Lane lived her life for God and her family, she could be heard many times quoting the scriptures and saying, "God can handle it, let God fight your battles and I know God."

Lannie is loved and will be missed by her children and family members. Lannie was preceded in death by her mother: Mable Jackson and father: Harry Mitchell; brothers: Buddy LaVon Thomas (Jack), Ronald; sister: Mary Alice Jackson; and an aunt: Rosa "Jean" Jackson

Lane is survived by her children ~ Pamela Jackson Charles of Richmond, VA, Tracy, Rhonda and Robert McKellar and Michael Townsend all of Dillon, SC; her grandchildren: Arnasha McKellar, Tinaya McRae, Jordan M. Jackson, Layla and Summer McKellar, Jasmine Holiday, Aubrey Linder; two great grandchildren: Jazyiah and Zayden McKellar; sisters: Janet (George) Bone and Beverly Riddick both of Maplewood, NJ, Anna Mitchell and Denise (Bishop Earl) Goings both of Dillon, SC, Tammy Mitchell of Jacksonville, FL, Devora and Renee Barlowe both of Brooklyn, NY; brothers: Harold "Pete" Jackson of Linden, NJ, Craig Mitchell and Eric (Toni) Mitchell both of Jacksonville, FL and Raviniyn Barlowe of Newark, NJ; family-n-love: Sue Neil, Cynthia Singleton, Edna Delores Sellers, Jeannette (Kendall) Richardson, Lee Fred Singleton and Von (Judy) Singleton and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Life is so full, so when God steps in sends you others to help you through trying times we remember them and they are: Dorothy Andrews (best friend) and Erskin Caraway (special friend).

