

Mother Lucrita McCormick Murphy, daughter of the late Orah Lean McCormick and Sandy McNeil was born on June 21, 1941 in Dillon, South Carolina. On Monday, January 11, 2016 Lucrita Murphy answered her final call while in McLeod Hospice House in Florence, South Carolina.

At an early age, Lucrita Murphy joined Old Bethel AME Church located in Hamer, South Carolina. While there, she accepted Christ as her savior and was a faithful member. Later in life, she became a member of St. Matthew AME Church where she continued to serve God until her health failed. She worked as a cook at South of the Border for over thirty years because cooking was her passion. She loved the Lord, church, family and friends.

Mother Lucrita Murphy was preceded in death by her husband: Willie Ernest Murphy and her son: Thomas Murphy; a grandson: Jeffrey Wright.

Mother Lucrita leaves to cherish her memories ~ three loving sons: Willie (Della) Murphy Jr. of Maxton, NC, Donald (Elizabeth) Murphy of Clio, SC and James Murphy of Jonesborough, GA; two beautiful daughters: Betty Murphy McGill of the home and Paris Murphy (Thomas) Pinkney of Hamer, SC; others she leaves to reflect upon her life are several special cousins: Rosetta McCormick Page and Jeremy Page both of Maryland and Jeremiah (Geraldine) McCormick James of New York; Lucrita Murphy loved her twenty-one grandchildren and really cared for them; those remaining to cherish her memories ~ Cedric Wright, Shayla Wright, Saderrria Bethea, Sharon Murphy Chisolm, Latonya Murphy Chisolm, Thomas Murphy Chisolm Jr., Teresa Murphy, Jermaine Murphy, James McGill, Martina Moore, Donald Murphy Jr., Donta Williams, Dohnovan Murphy, Dorrien Murphy, Shiquita McCoy, Travis Murphy, Sharneice Murphy, Brandon Hogan, Yachi Hogan, Niaya Hogan and Jabari Hogan; and a host of great grands, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.