

Mable Geraldine Johnson was born in Dillon, South Carolina on September 5, 1950, the daughter of the late Arthur and Frances Wilson. She was the youngest of six siblings.

Mable attended the Dillon County Public Schools System where she completed the Eleventh Grade.

On February 7, 1976, she married the love of her life, Willie Johnson. For many years, their home was open as a place to sit and talk, laugh, have a meal or two, and a safe place to stay and feel cared for. Especially for kids, where they could find a bowl of candy on the table or in her huge purse.

Mable joined the St. Mark Baptist Church of Dillon, South Carolina, where she served faithfully on the Gospel Choir. Then in 2008, she and her husband became a member of the First Friendship Baptist Church of Nichols, South Carolina where she faithfully served as the President of the Inspirational Choir and she had the voice of an angel. She was also a member of the Senior Citizens' Committee until her passing.

On Wednesday, December 21, 2016, she peacefully departed after having a conversation with her Lord and Savior at McLeod Hospital, Dillon, South Carolina and then ascending into his Holy arms.

Mable was preceded in death by three siblings: Iris Lee McQueen, Patricia Wilson, David (Knup) McArthur Wilson; mother-n-law: Bessie Mae McRae; three brothers-n-law: John R. Hargrove, William Johnson and Leroy Johnson.
