

Mary Elizabeth Armstrong was born on January 19, 1941 to the late Martie Mae Bethea and the late Ben Crawford; a loving step-father Locious Bethea, who also preceded her in death. Mary Elizabeth Armstrong lovingly known as Ms. Lizzie departed this life on Sunday, December 25, 2016 after an illness at McLeod Regional Medical Center, Florence, South Carolina surrounded by her love ones.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Vernon Thomas Armstrong and to this union five daughters were born: Priscilla (John) Nelson, Myra (Glenn) McNeil, Joyce (O'Landrew) Fulwood, Pamela (Paul) Bruce and Leaser Armstrong; a special son: Donald Norman who she loved very much all of Dillon, SC; fourteen grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Mary Armstrong was a devoted mother and friend to everyone she met; she gave her life to Christ at an early age. She loved the Lord and studied his Word. She was a member of St. Peters Holiness Church where she taught Sunday School and served on the Missionary Board. She was educated in the public schools of Dillon County, South Carolina. She retired from Wix Corporation of Dillon, South Carolina. Because of the love she had for people she became a caregiver and also was on the staff with Bartell's Funeral Home. She had special friends she loved very much: Evangelist Denise and Minister Victor Kennedy, Doretha Page, Wanda McLain, Annie Salmon and many more, along with other relatives and friends.

Joyce Lafran Bethea Morrison was born May 9, 1963 to Katie M. Bethea and the late Clarence Sellers in Dillon, South Carolina. She departed this earthly life on Wednesday, December 28, 2016 at McLeod Regional Hospital in Dillon, South Carolina.

Joyce was educated in public schools in Dillon, South Carolina and she graduated from Dillon High School class of 1982. Joyce was faithfully employed at many different businesses in the area and she was last employed at MJ Soffee in Rowland, North Carolina and Pee Dee Home Health in Dillon, South Carolina. Joyce was called a "workaholic" by her family and friends because if she was not working, she was at home cooking and enjoyed doing both. If you needed a friend she was there, If you needed an ear she listened and if you needed the truth she told you.

Joyce joined McCoy Chapel United Methodist Church and accepted Christ at an early age. She had the love of Christ in her as she showed her expressions on the Spiritual Choir, the Church Serving Committee and as a Communion Stewardess.

Joyce was married to Charles Morrison and to this union one son was born.

She was preceded in death by ~ her father: Clarence Sellers Sr.; brothers: Clarence Sellers Jr., Lafone Bethea, James McNeil and sisters: Bobby Jean Bethea, Glenda Faye Bethea, Evelyn Sellers, Teresa Moore and Lula Mae Stackhouse.

Joyce leaves to cherish her memories ~ her mother: Katie Mae Bethea; son: Quincy Bethea and his fiancée: Colletta Jones both of Greensboro, NC; two grandchildren: Quincy Bethea Jr. and Quaveon Bethea; thirteen brothers: John Willie (Mother V) Bethea, Thomas E. Bethea, Harold L. (Linda) Bethea all of Greensboro, NC, Joe M. Bethea, Marion Bethea, Renzeo Bethea, Harry Wayne (Sharon) Bethea of Bennettsville, SC, Ronnie A. Bethea all of Little Rock, SC, Prentis Sellers, Joseph Sellers, Levern (Doris) Sellers, Melvin (Pearlie) Sellers, Heyward Sellers all of Dillon, SC; seven sisters: Elder Sallie Rose (Deacon Clarence) Malloy of Greensboro, NC, Mary K. (Nazell) Harley of Little Rock, SC, Gloria K. Bethea of Bennettsville, SC, Frances D. (Elder Alexander) McRae of Hamer, SC; Lucille Sellers, Gloria (Eugene) Williams, Carolyn Smiling all of Dillon, SC; special friends: Barbara McCollum and Jackie Graves; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, "57" family, other relatives and friends.

Olivia C. Page was born on July 22, 1952 in Dillon, South Carolina to Sadie Campbell and the late Thomas Davis. Libby departed this earthly life on Tuesday, January 3, 2017.

She was a graduate of the final 1970 class of the Gordon High School Trojans, Dillon, South Carolina. She worked numerous jobs but her true love was cooking and being a provider. She loved to cook and had room at her table for anyone.

She was preceded in death by her brother: James Campbell, her sister: Mary Elaine Davis, and the rock behind her existence and many others the late Clara Crawford Campbell.

Olivia leaves to cherish fond memories ~ her mother: Sadie Campbell; seven children: Sonja Campbell, Jevares Campbell, Anson (Shannon) Page, Evonda Page, Devin (Jade) Page, Brandon Page and Stamar Page; five brothers: Glenn (Bobbie) Campbell, Victor Davis, Jerome (Sam) Davis, James (Alice) Manning and John Cabbagestalk; two sisters: Patricia Scarver and Virginia (John) McCinnis; five granddaughters, six grandsons, one great-granddaughter: M'aronia Owens; a list of special friends: Catherine "Cat" Johnson, Sylvia Charles, Alice Manning, Cleveland Higgins and Theodore Williams; Denica, KK, Jamiya, Jaylen, DJ, Hyzeke, Jazmin, Jareshia, Shanky, Jabo, Ty, Nicole, Phonni, Reese, Chris, Tony, Torrey, Rock, Antoine, Biko, Nee Nee, all of Newtown, Dillon... the world. Now you all know Libby's list of kids, nieces, nephews, grandkids, and siblings go well beyond blood and the list could go on forever. She played a different role to all of us but most people that crossed her path were impacted in some way by "Libby Love."