

On Friday, September 9, 2016, Virginia Mae Brown answered God's called to be with him and entered into eternal rest. She was born on June 23, 1924 in Bennettsville, South Carolina to the late Ella Bell Cox and Brook Townsend.

Granny, as she was affectionately known received her education in the Marlboro County Public Schools System. She loved her job as a homemaker where she enjoyed cooking and especially nurturing her family. Granny could be found always awake at night reading her bible and later telling us of her many conversations with the Lord. She also enjoyed reading her "Truly Story" magazines and chewing her "Apple Tobacco."

She was preceded in death by her daughter: Josephine Scott, grand-daughter: Monica Wheeler and two sisters: Nellie Sykes and Maggie L. Cox.

Mother Virginia leaves to cherish her memories ~ two other children: a daughter: Mildred Anderson and a son: Charles Jakes; ten grandchildren: Macklin, Joanne (Lawrence), Rosewithe (Lemuell), Cynthia, Robert, Michelle, Jerome, Jessica and Pamela; a grandchild whom she reared (Leon) Cashay, and Tony; twenty-four great grandchildren: Towonda, Lawrence, Teaira, Alisha, Charlaye, A'liyah, Tredonna, Ryshawn, Tyrin, Tyler, Tyrease, Raymond, Shamal, Duvontez, Ny'shante, Nyshon, Ny'liyah, Octavius, Ta'vea, Kenley, Daquan, Denim, Denver, Desire'; thirteen great, great grandchildren: Tyshawn, Tyquan, Mijoy, Tyrese, Lawrence Jr., Jermaine, Jordan, Rhyllie, Amari, Brandon, Blayre, King, Noah and a host of other relatives and friends.
